

Information Regarding Yemeni Nationals and Libyan Nationals

Following examination of the new conditions set by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs to grant visas to Yemenis and Libyan nationals incoming to Jordan, and the procedures that will be applied to those already on Jordanian territory, and having referred to the Ministry of Interior, and Department of Borders and Residence Management, we can state the following to you:

- Summary of the decision to impose visas on Yemeni nationals

As a start, anyone who is a Yemeni national and Libyan Nationals must before coming to Jordan obtain a visa / prior approval from the Jordanian official authorities or the embassies of the Kingdom and under sponsorship of a Jordanian sponsor. It shall be a condition that such visa/prior approval is granted for the purposes of medical treatment, study or visit to relatives or to attend a conference and participate in a workshop.

- Yemeni national and Libyan Nationals residing in the Gulf Cooperation Council countries, Europe ,the United States, Australia or Canada are exempted from the requirement to obtain prior approval, provided that they have been resident in the country they come from for at least six months, and thus they can get a visa directly through the official border crossings, and in case they do not have a valid residence permit in the country they come from, they will not benefit from this exemption, and they have to get the approval as stated above.
- Exempted diplomats who are Yemeni nationals are exempted from obtaining visas as well as holders of service passports.

Procedures for arrivals:

- When the above conditions are met and upon Yemenis and Libyan Nationals entering to Jordanian territory, they will be granted at border centers a residence permit valid for one month, and then they must visit the nearest security station for the purposes of obtaining an extension for two months, and if there is a justification the period will become three months, and here they must visit the Ministry of Interior for the purpose of getting an annual residence permit or they must leave the country after the expiration of the period granted to them.

- Procedures for Yemenis currently present on Jordanian territory:
 - Under the said decision, it is also applicable even to of Yemeni nationals present on Jordanian territory before the decision has been issued, and therefore the Yemeni nationality is no longer listed under the categories exempted from obtaining residence permit, thus becoming like any other foreigner.
 - Under the decision, Yemeni nationals who present on Jordanian territory have been granted a respite/deadline to straighten their positions starting from 12.15.2015 and ending on 04.14.2016 for the purposes of straitening their positions.

Regarding to Libyan holding Nationals:

Hereby according to the decision from the Jordanian government, starting from the date of 15/12/2015 to impose entrance visas on Libyan nationality and to consider it one of the restricted nationalities Therefore, any Libyan nationality holder shall to and before he/she came to Jordan, t get a visa / prior approval from the Jordanian official authorities or the embassies of the Kingdom and under sponsorship of a Jordanian sponsor. It is required that such visa/prior approval is granted for the purposes of medical treatment, study or visit their relatives or to attend a conference and participate in a workshop. And it is required for their continued presence in Jordan to obtain a permanent residency permit . Accordingly, all previous conditions for residency permit are applied. Regarding residency permit and granting a residency permit for Yemeni holding nationality, it is apply to Libyan holding nationality, whether the current presence residence within the Jordan borders before the decision or who intend to visit Jordan. The only difference hereinafter, there is no decision shall grant a period for correction situation in a contrary of Yemeni holding nationality.. The decision can be understood to enter for effect for them.; Therefore, they must correct their situation and to get a permanent residency permit in order to avoid taking any action against them such as being arrested and deported.
